Re: Letter of Support the Neighborhood Empowerment and Resource Centre (NEARC Inc.)'s proposal to Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) - 2019

To Whom It May Concern,

On behalf of Career Mind Consulting, I would like to express our support to NEARC Inc's application for funding to provide Employment-related services and Building community connections programs with IRCC.

Career Mind Consulting provides high-quality career consulting services with an emphasis on identifying job search strategies and supporting job application and interview processes, specializing in personal and tailored services to newcomers and immigrants. Through our partnership with the Enabling Work Force in Manitoba (ENWIN) program from the very first stage of selection and recruitment processes through employment and settlement related service to newcomers youth, we were very impressed with the great work NEARC Inc. is doing in providing training and preparation, employment opportunities, paid work internship and various settlement services and programs while mentoring and nurturing newcomers to lead a meaningful life.

NEARC Inc. is a Winnipeg-based newcomer-youth serving not-for-profit organization which promotes youth economic empowerment, engagement, leadership, networking opportunities, capacity building and ultimately leading towards meaningful job for the newcomers.

We are confident that NEARC Inc. can continue to carry out employment and settlement related projects effectively and productively. We acknowledge the need for these type of project in our community and know that NEARC Inc. will work to create a sustainable impact in leadership development and will have meaningful contribution in youth employment, newcomers' integration while incorporating a holistic and supportive approach.

Should there be a need for further clarification on this letter of support, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

Tali Litvak-Kor
